National Contact Points in FP6 - Collaborations with Former Union Soviet Countries

Anca Nicolescu
NCP for “Food Quality and Safety”
APRE, Italy

Are the NCPs useful?

- Preparing an European research project to be submitted within FP6 for funding means:
  - Being informed on the financial opportunities (open calls) and on the expectations
  - Preparing a consortium
  - Dealing with financial issues (EU financial rules)
  - Carrying out activities beyond research: dissemination, training, etc.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Research is important but it is not enough for excellence!
